THE FLEET IN A GALE.

The supply ship Culgoa, attached to the Atlantic fleet, from Honolulu, July 21, arrived at Auckland yesterday evening. She received yesterday morning the following wireless communication from the fleet:

Thursday and Friday there was a fresh breeze to moderate gale with a rough sea. This morning the weather was the heaviest encountered since leaving Hampton Roads. The ships are pitching heavily. A portion of the wireless apparatus was knocked down at 8 a. m. We will increase our speed to 11 knots, and expect to reach Auckland on schedule time. There will be no fleet evolutions today on account of the weather. The vessels keep their formation and distance easily. The position of the fleet at 8 o'clock last night (August 6) was 31 51 south latitude and 178 east longitude. Distance from Auckland 360 miles.

There are many imitations of DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve but just one original. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

SAYS WIFE AIDED ASSAILANT.

Implicating his wife in a deliberate attempt to put him out of the way, Jacob L. Hechler, wounded by shots fired at him in the presence of his wife and in his own home, yesterday made his first statement since the tragedy of Tuesday morning, Hechler says that the presence of Ellerson, who is accused of the assault at his home on the night in question, was due to the entreaties of his wife, who insisted that her husband ask him to sit up with him and watch for burglars, who had recently disturbed the neighborhood.

"I yielded to her entreaties," said Hechler. "We had been drinking. Early in the night my wife and Roy insisted that I crawl under the house, maintaining that they heard a noise. But I was too wise. I knew and felt that if I went under the house that they would shoot me and then claim that a burglar had done it. They even made fun of me, saying I was afraid, thinking it would make me yield."

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills will promptly relieve all Kidney and Bladder disorders. Sold and recommended by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Granulated Sore Eyes Cured.

"For twenty years I suffered from a bad case of granulated sore eyes, says Martin Boyd of Henrietta, Ky. "In February, 1903, a gentleman asked me to try Chamberlain's Salve. I bought one box and used about two-thirds of it and my eyes have not given me any trouble since." This salve is for sale by W. F. Creighton and Co., and Richard Gibson.

THRASHES BRIDE EVERY DAY.

John S. Ball believes that if you spare the fist you spoil your wife, and likewise her whole family. Since he eloped with young Laura Reed, a few weeks ago, he has according to her statement to Justice Loden in Baltimore yesterday morning, beaten her regularly once a day and sometimes twice. When feeling in specially good condition, she said, he made it three thrashings per diem.

But Thursday night Ball indulged his propensity for beating people beyond the limit of human endurance. Besides his wife, he beat her mother, her father, and her brother.

Yesterday after Justice Loden had heard several witnesses tell about Ball's achievement, he fined the mighty scrapper $10 and costs, and sent him to jail for six months.

Ball, who is about 24 years old, eloped with young Laura Reed last month, and on the runaway couple's return from their brief honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Reed, the bride's parents, forgave them, and as Ball had no money and had neglected to provide himself with a job before taking a wife, the parents of the bride allowed Mr. and Mrs. Ball to come to their home to live. Thursday night he punched his bride in the jaw. Next Ball is accused of handing his mother-in-law an uppercut on the chin.

His father-in-law rushed into the room, and as he came in Ball is said to have sidestepped light and punched him in the nose. At this juncture in ran Harry F. Reed, the brother-in-law of the scrappy Mr. Ball.

Reed and his brother-in-law had a hard battle, but the bridegroom had just downed his last antagonist when Patrolman Birmingham dashed up the front steps in response to the cries of "murder!" varied with "Help, !" and arrested the pugilistic young man.

A Faithful Friend.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for eighteen years, and never start out on a trip without this, my faithful friend," says H. S. Nichols of Oakland, Ind. Ter. When a man has used a remedy for thirty-five years he know its value and is competent to speak of it. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

SATURDAY EVENING, AUG. 8, 1908.

WEST POINT cadets are doubtless distressed at the suspension of eight of their classmates for hazing, while, it is believed, a great majority of them are at same time sincerely grieved to discover a recrudescence of practices which were explicity forbidden seven years ago by an act of Congress. If that is not the general state of feeling there, then the United States Military Academy has lagged behind every other prominent school in the country; for the average American student's attitude toward the tormenting of freshmen and unpopular upper class men has changed during the last decade from hilarious approval to uneasy tolerance and thence to manly disgust. In reference to the suspension the New York Tribune says:

Hazing there still is, to be sure, and hazing there may always be, so long as alumni of "the good old days" return at commencement time to relate in reminiscent glee how they used to hold members of the class below them under the town pump on a January night and watch icicles form on the victims' noses. But the influence of such Viking tales has long been perceptibly withering; and if that is not the case at West Point the young gentlemen up the river must respect tradition more conservatily than is the wont of adolescents. The investigating board having spent a month on the case, Colonel Scott's order doubtless strikes a fair blow at the right men. Leniency cannot be pleaded with reason, especially on behalf of the two first class men. Discipline and fidelity to the oath of obedience are the chief study at West Point, and the cadet who "flunks" in it after four years of drills manifestly unfit to enter the army.

MR. HARRY ST. GEORGE TUCKER, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, says he intends to challenge Mr. W. R. Meredith, of Richmond, to a joint debate as to his reasons for renouncing the democratic party to support Taft. Mr. Meredith, who is the retiring president of the Virginia Bar Association, at the recent meeting of the association at Hot Springs stated that he would support Taft. Mr. Tucker should not dignify Mr. Meredith with any attention whatever. The latter's "renunciation" is of old standing and amounts to nothing. He never voted for Mr. Bryan and has not been a democrat for years past. He should be left severely alone.

IN RECORDING the death at Fairfax recently of Miss Rose Thomas, eldest daughter of the late Judge Henry W. Thomas, the Herald of that place says:

The old Thomas home, which she so long dignified and adorned, and which was noted for its hospitality and attractiveness, seems now practically broken up, many members of the well-known family having passed away, while the two surviving members reside in Washington.

This is a sad, but oft told tale nowadays in Virginia, where so many of the old homes are passing to stranger hands.

THE Gazette has stated time and again that when a man of mature age changes his politics he needs watching. Mr. Wyndham R. Meredith, of Richmond, at Hot Springs this week renounced his allegiance to the democratic party and announced his intention of supporting Mr. Taft in the presidential election this fall. It is now stated that Mr. Meredith wants a federal judgeship or some other government office.

From Washington.

Washington, Aug. 8.

Five officers of the Military Academy at West Point, including the superintendent himself, Col. Hugh Scott, will on Monday next begin a three days test of their skill and endurance in horsemanship. They will also undergo the usual physical examination. Coming just in time, when the academy is worked up to an unusual pitch awaiting the final decision of the president and secretary of war in the case of the eight cadets accused of hazing, the outcome of the test will be watched with unusual interest. There is no reason to believe, however, that any one of the officers will fail. The test will take place at Fort Ethan Allen, at 7 o'clock Monday morning.

Acting Comptroller of the Currency Kane has officially notified all national banks in the State of Oklahoma of the opinion rendered by the attorney general that it is illegal for the officers of any national bank to enter into such an agreement as is contemplated by section 4 of the Oklahoma statute relative to guaranteeing deposits, and that persistent and wilful action to this effect on the part of such bank would be just cause for the forfeiture of its charter. All national banks which have taken advantage of the law referred to have been required to withdraw from the agreement and to notify the comptroller's office that they have done so.

The first official test of Capt. Thomas S. Baldwin's dirigible ship balloon will be conducted under the direction of the signal corps of the army from the military post at Fort Myer, Va., between four and seven o'clock this afternoon, according to an official announcement made by Brig. Gen. James S. Allen, chief signal officer.

Orders are being prepared at the Navy Department for the organization of a corps of female nurses, to correspond with the female nurse corpse of the army, to work under the direction of the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery. A Washington woman who had experience in military nursing, will be made superintendent of the corps at $1,800 a year. Commissions will be issued to about 100 young women at the beginning, their pay to range from $40 to $75 a month, with allowances. The organization will be effected by September, when the women will begin here a special course in military training at the Naval Hospital Medical School. Only graduate nurses will be accepted.

A number of Alexandrians were here today to attend the funeral of the late Mr. C. W. Ridley.

THE VAUGHAN BABY.

The grand jury investigating the alleged murder of the Vaughan baby at the City Home in Richmond yesterday brought in an indictment, charging Mrs. Ethelyn Gaylord, an inmate of the home, with twice having administered poison to the baby, the latter attempt ending in the death of the child. A capias of arrest was immediately served upon the young woman, who was found on a cot at the home nursing her girl baby, born several days prior to the advent of the Vaughan child at the home. Mrs. Gaylord will have to stand trial for the murder of the child.

It is said that the mysterious Thompson, who first brought the child and the mother to Richmond, was secretly brought into the grand jury room to testify. He has not been connected with the murder of the child.

"Several hours later Ellerson came into the room occupied by myself and my wife. I ordered him to leave. He did so. I was later awakened by my wife leaving the room and going into the one in which Ellerson was. I followed her. I had no sooner entered the room when both of them jumped on me. I was struck over the head with the butt of a revolver. A moment later I was shot in the face. As I ran down the steps Ellerson fired at me with a shotgun. I then became dazed and my memory failed me."

The wounded man's face is dotted with powder marks, indicating that he was fired upon at close range. The first bullet may be removed by an operation, but the second will not be probed for. Both bullets have been located by X-rays.

The grand jury, in its report to the court, severely condemns the management of the City Home, in which the child was murdered.

CUT OUT A BABE'S HEART.

A negro of the name of Marin, living at Alacranes, has made a confession that clears up the witchcraft mystery at that place, which had been puzzling the authorities since early in June, when Luisa Valdes, a white child, disappeared. Marin says he met Fidel Valladeres, a negro, who is also in custody, who told him he wanted a white baby for the purpose of procuring its heart and blood to cure his mother's illness, this being the only cure according to the witches who had been consulted.

After several meetings with Valladeres Marin consented to get a child, and enlisted as an aid Victor Navarro, who was living in the Valdes home, and who could capture Luisa Valdes without her making an outcry. Navarro stole the child on June 4, placing her in a bag to prevent her cries, if she made any, from being heard. He delivered the bag to Marin and Valladeres, who were waiting for him. The three men were presently joined by Irene Rodriguez, and all went to an isolated place. Until then, Marin declares, he did not understand that the baby was to be killed, and he protested against her murder, but he desisted upon being threatened with a machette.

Then Valladeres and Rodriguez hung the baby to a tree and Rodriguez, drawing a knife from his belt, cut its throat and chest, extracted the heart and caught the blood in an empty can. The body was then replaced in the bag and thrown into a spring. Marin says he will show the place where the body was hidden. The other prisoners deny the story, but the authorities believe that Marin is telling the truth.

Two years ago a similar case of witchcraft occurred, a child having been killed to make broth for a barren woman, the witches prescribing this as an infallible and the only remedy.

MANLY MR. TAFT.

The toad beneath the harrow knows
Exactly where each tooth point goes;
The butterfly upon the road
Preaches contentment to that toad.

When he came to the arched entrance of the great building he halted, turned his face upward (ad siders) and shouted "Bill!" Instantly out of each window a head appeared. Lots of windows, lots of heads, "Bills." From all this it is "directed," call me Bill Taft. But in old Virginia, and it may be so everywhere, someone "called Bill" will find a change over night, and his name is "mud" or possibly "Dennis." It will be the proper time, this time, to vote for Mr. Bryan. No untimely reference to Mr. Bryan or to Mr. Taft will be heard in any social gathering of democrats, most surely when there sits the guest. No wonder Bill showed modesty and embarrassment, for he was in Dixie. Mr. Taft "dun noble, he did." We democrats will surely vote for Mr Bryan this time. Mr. Taft knows this. Manly Mr. Taft. He was directed by the White House that he come here—Hot Springs, Va., to meet an association as their guest and do and say those things he is directed to do—to add to my glory et id. Was not this a manly thing for Mr. Taft or any one to tell? All the time? Yes, Mr. Bryan all the time this time.

$500 FOR A BURGLAR.

"For each burglar, dead or alive, $500.

This is the reading of signs tacked at various points in the little suburban town of Castle Shannon, six miles from Pittsburg. The town council of the village has decided that the only way to stop burglaries is to offer a cash reward for burglars dead or alive, and so after a meeting last night this price was agreed on and the town treasurer authorized to pay $500 for each burglar's pelt.

The little town has been terrorized by the many burglaries which have been committed in the past six months. Soon after the town council posted its price for burglar hides there was a dozen new shotguns brought by citizens of the village.

Virginia News.

Harry St. George Tucker is excited over W. R. Meredith's renunciation of Bryan and declaration for Taft. He says he will challenge Meredith to a joint debate.

Mrs. Fanny Shores Dickerson, wife of J. H. Dickerson, died yesterday morning in Richmond in her thirty-third year. She is survived by her husband and two daughters, one sister, and two brothers.

Gerald F. Higgins, brother-in-law of the United States consul at Messina, Italy, and principal man in "The Clansman," is dangerously ill at his home in Richmond where he is spending his vacation.

A fire which began Thursday evening and burned all night, brought total destruction to the plant of the Suffolk Lumber Company, Suffolk, together with a lot of shingles and four railroad cars. The blaze was discovered in a pile of shavings. Loss $35,000, with $15,000 insurance.

George G. Butler, principal of the Fauquier Female Institute, died at Warrenton, last night after a lingering illness. Mr. Butler was in his eighty-sixth year, and had been married twice. His first wife, was Miss Kemper, and his second wife, Miss Addie Ingle, who died about three years ago.

A work train on a narrow gauge railroad at Rorer iron mines, three miles south of Roanoke, ran off the track yesterday, striking half a dozen mine employes. James Tyree was killed, James Wirtz fatally hurt, and John Long sustained a broken thigh, while Frank Richardson and John Crown were scalded.

Three negroes are under arrest in connection with an attempt made near Danvill to blow up a Southern Railway passengers train by placing a stick of dynamite on the track. Southbound train No. 29 was rounding a sharp curve about midnight, when an explosion occurred, which shattered several window panes. On Thursday a box containing twelve sticks of dynamite was found near the spot where the explosion occurred. Eddie Slade and Lonnie Reynolds, two negro boys under arrest, are reported to have been seen in possession of the dynamite, and Jordon Lee an older negro, also under arrest, confesses he showed them how to use the dynamite.

Gibson Warthen and Thomas Johnson, of Front Royal, were held up by six persons Thursday night about a mile from town, while returning from Riverton, after a call upon young girls. As they were driving under a viaduct, six men called on them to halt. Warthen and Johnson were ordered from their buggy, but Warthen was turned loose with instructions to get away in a hurry and keep his mouth shut. Johnson was walked about a mile and a half across fields and tied to a locust tree. The assailants left and he worked himself loose from his bonds and started home. Warthen in the meantime had given the alarm. A searching party was organized, but no trace of the men could be found.

News of the Day.

The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad pleaded guilty to rebating yesterday and was fined $7,000.

Mrs. Eliza D. Stewart, the noted temperance advocate and known all over the country as "Mother" Stewart, died at her home in Hicksville, Ohio, last night.

Announcement of the transfer of control of the smelting trust from the Guggenheims to Standard Oil interests started a big buying movement in the stock market yesterday.

Miss Lena Brown suffered concussion of the brain and two other women and three men were badly hurt when a speeding automobile turned turtle on Willow Grove avenue, Philadelphia, yesterday.

From two boy companions of Tufia Sasbem, the Syrian boy whose dismembered body was found in Chicago, it was learned that he entered the house of the Turk under arrest Sunday and was not seen alive again.

Not a wheel is turning in the big mills of the International Paper Company, at Corinth, N. Y. Pursuant to and order received from the main office of the company in New York, all departments have been shut down indefinitely.

Isaac Cooley, aged 65, was instantly killed at noon, at Durham, N. C., yesterday by the eastbound passenger train. He stepped in front of it, while running rapidly, and was struck and knocked 50 feet. Two years ago he was run over by a street car, sued for $20,000, and was awarded $50. He was partly deaf.

It is reported that Thomas Dixon, jr., author of the reconstruction trilogy, "The Leopard's Spots," "The Clansman" and "The Traitor," has about made up his mind to play the role of Dan Wylie, a mountaineer member of the Ku Klux Klan, in "The Traitor," the dramatic sequel to "The Clansman."

Mrs. Mary Ann Perry died yesterday afternoon at the Alleghany Hospital, Cumberland, aged 105 years. Her age is well authenticated. Her husband was Dr. George C. Perry, who died 20 years ago. Dr. Perry was related to Commodore Oliver Perry, of Lake Erie fame, and was a brother of Commander Roger Perry, of the United States navy.

At Edmonds, ten miles across the mountains from Sparta, N. C., an entire family was killed by lightning. Frank Murphy, a farmer; his wife, and young son were in the field stacking rye when the storm came up. The trio ran for shelter, but were stricken down before they reached the house. The bodies were found by neighbors.

Irving Spalding, the young son of A. F. Spalding, of Springfield, Ill., was rescued from death on the face of a precipice on Catalino Island, Cal., recently. Young Spalding had climbed up the face of a cliff 750 feet high until he got near the top, when his further progress was impossible either up or down. After a search of hours a party headed by his father, found the boy,

Among the resolutions adopted by the Lambeth conference which has just adjourned at London was one that the organization of different races into separate churches on the basis of race or color is inconsistent with the principle of the church; also, that "it is undesirable that the innocent party to a divorce for adultery receive the church blessing upon remarriage.

DIED.

Suddenly, on Saturday, August 8th, WILLIAM KIRBY, son of the late J. Owen Kirby. Funeral notice later.

THAW A BANKRUPT.

Alleging that his creditors are pressing unfair claims against him so that he is unable to pay, Harry Kendall Thaw, slayer of Stanford White, yesterday through his attorney, Charles Morschauser, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and ex-Governor Stone, of Pennsylvania, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States Court in Pittsburg. Detective Roger O'Mara, of Pittsburg, was named as receiver for Thaw's estate and gave bond in $200,000.

In his bankruptcy papers, which were signed by Thaw yesterday afternoon while outside the Poughkeepsie jail, he shows some startling figures. He places his assets at $128,012, his liabilities at $453,140. Thaw, through his attorney, sets forth plainly that he does not believe that he owes the $453,140. He names 13 creditors and gives the amount which they claim he owes. Of this number only two claims are undisputed. He admits to owing Mrs. Mary O. Thaw, his mother, $191,500, and he also approves the claim of Roger O'Mara for $400 fees as a detective. There than follows in his paper a list of creditors and their amounts. It is understood that Thaw disputes every one of them, and will insist that O'Mara, as his receiver, sift the claims to the bottom.

Evelyn Nesbit Thaw will be the heaviest loser by the voluntary petition in bankruptcy filed yesterday by Harry Kendall Thaw. It will mean at least a difference of $1,000 a month in her spending money from now on. From an absolutely reliable source, it was learned today that Evelyn had been forcing her husband to give her $1,000 a month for spending money besides her fixed settlement. The petition in bankruptcy also means, it is declared, the absolute and final severance of all ties between them

LOST $750 AT POKER.

Gus Schoenbeck, foundry foreman, lost $750 at poker Thursday night, and entering without a cent his home in Chicago, met his seven-year-old daughter Mary.

"Papa, give me a penny for candy," said the little girl. Silently Schoenbeck stepped into an adjoining room, picked up a revolver and sent a bullet crashing into his body.

At the County Hospital where he was taken unconscious and without having uttered a word it was said he would die. There are seven holes in his intestines from the bullet.

Besides the seven-year-old child he has a wife and two babies.

SHAH PAWNS HIS JEWELS.

A dispatch received at St. Petersburg from Teheran says that the Shah of Persia has obtained a loan of $250,000 from the Russian bank, having deposited the crown jewels as security. This money will be used in fitting out an expedition against Tabriz.

The English legation in Teheran has protested a second time against the presence of Cossacks near the legation, General Liakhoff, military governor of Teheran, replied that the Cossacks in question had merely halted to feed their horses, but he issued orders that the troops should in the future avoid the vicinity of the legation.

"DRUNKS" TO BE POSTED.

Within a short time every saloon in Richmond will be supplied with a placard bearing an appropriate heading, and carrying the warning that the owners of the names found below are under Probation Officer Portlaux's ban, and must not be allowed to purchase any intoxicating drinks.

Under the caption on the card will be a blank space for names, and every time some unfortunate falls from grace his name will be inserted. As it would be useless to provide every bartender in Richmond with the full list of habitual drunkards, it is the purpose of Officer Portlaux to put up the name of a man only in those saloons which he has been accustomed to frequent. The cards will be placed in prominent spots, and the names will be written in letters large enough for everyone to read.

Turkish Reforms.

London, Aug. 8.—In view of the new reforms promulgated by Sultan Abdul Hamid, regarding Macedonia, Russia has announced her withdrawal from the Anglo-Russian proposal, entered into at the recent meeting between Emperor Nicholas and King Edward at Reval. In her note of withdrawal Russia announces that the Turkish government now promises the reforms embodied in the agreement between Russia and England and there is no longer need of its enforcement. It is known that England acquiesces in this step by Russia, but is suppressing an announcement of her attitude.

A FACT PROVEN

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit inoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

Accept no substitute. "Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

Sold by Ernest L. Allen & Co., agents. Two sizes 50c and $1.00. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. 76

Today's Telegraphic News

A Question of Rank.

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Aug. 8.—Does a presidential candidate outrank a foreign minister at a society function? He does, at least, he did, last night, when Mr. and Mrs. Taft led the german at the Greenbrier Hotel, and the Norwegian Minister, Mr. Cude and Mrs. Cude retired to their apartments in high dudgeon. When Mr. Cude, who is a guest at the resort, was invited to attend the german, he said he would be there if he could lead the grand march. If any one else was given the honor, he said, he could not attend, because if he did drop into line behind anyone else his sovereign would regard it as a personal affront. This was a poser for the managers of the ball for they had already sent word to Mr. Taft that they wanted him to lead. After much hemming and hawing, they told Mr. Cude that the best thing to do for him would be to give him second place. Neither Mr. Cude nor Mrs. Cude danced and it was officially announced that the reason for their non-appearance was the fact that they had neglected to bring along their evening clothes.

The Pythians

Boston, Aug. 8.—The Pythian convention ends today and the 80,000 Knights and their families who have thronged the city for the past week, are leaving by every train. The Uniform Rank ended its encampment yesterday with the distribution of prizes. Company L, of Georgia, won the $1,500 prize in the infantry class. The Mobile, Ala., company, won the $600 prize for the command that came the greatest distance, and the Smoky City company, of Pennsylvania, 43 strong, won $400 for having the largest number of men.

Six thousand Pythians holding a secret session in Mechanics Hall last night, for the exemplification of the ranks of page and knight, were thrown into a tremendous uproar by rumors that a spy had concealed himself in the hall to observe the secret work. For nearly an hour the business of the meeting was held up while the members rummaged every corner with the aid of search lights. The intruder, if there was any, must have escaped Refused the Sacrament.

Rome, Aug. 8.—Despite his agnostic teachings and bitter controversies with the church, Rome is mourning the death of Marquis di Rudini, Italian statesman and former prime minister, who died last night, at the age of 69, after a long illness. Mgr. Beccaria, court chaplain, was sent by King Victor Emanuel to Rudini's bedside, shortly before the end, with a message of sympathy. Grieved at the dying man's agnosticism, Beccaria besought him to receive the sacrament.

The marquis is reported to have strongly chided the chaplain for making such a request, declaring that he could not renounce his life's belief in such a sacred hour.

Di Rudini was one of the soldiers of Garibaldi and was one of the leaders in the revolution that freed Sicily from the rule of King Francis. He leaves six sons, all of whom have won names for themselves in Italy.

Illinois Primaries.

Chicago, Aug. 8.—The first direct primary in the history of Illinois is being held today. Chief interest centers in the struggle between Governor Deneen and former Governor Yates for the republican nomination for Governor.

Former Vice President Adlei Stevenson seems the favorite in the race for the democratic nomination for governor, having the backing of William J. Bryan. His opponents are J. Hamilton Lewis, John H. McGorty, and Douglass Pattison.

The candidacy of Albert J. Hopkins, for re-election as U. S. Senator, has been strongly opposed by William E. Mason, former Senator, and Congressman George E. Foss.

Senator Cullom will not be allowed to vote, having failed to comply with the registration requirements of the new primary law.

Lost Her Reason.

Millville, N. J., Aug. 8.—Fearing continued residence here would cause beautiful eighteen-year-old Grace Lomona to lose her reason after two attempts at suicide, the girl, closely guarded by her brother, sailed today for Italy. Grace became desperately enamored of William Perry and when he jilted her she was beside herself with grief. Meeting Perry in the street she offered him her purse and entreated him to marry her. He refused, and she said: "I will kill myself." After thrashing her rival, the girl cast herself into Union lake but was rescued by Councilman Reardon. Yesterday she tried to take poison but was caught and saved by her family. The girl is greatly admired by her own nationality, but she preferred Perry, an American.

Steamer Burned.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 8.—Six passengers and two of the crew of the steamer Premier lost their lives when that vessel burned to the water's edge, at Warrens Landing at the northern end of Lake Winnipeg.

The fire started in the engine room of the steamer during the night and spread with such rapidity that many of the 38 persons aboard had but a moment to escape.

Those who did so leaped overboard in their night garments.

The victims were either smothered or burned to death in their berths.

Fire from the burning vessel soon ignited the piers and buildings of the trading post at the landing and though the traders and their men fought hard most of the post is in ruins.

Mr. Bryan.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 8.—As a side issue to Mr. Bryan's presidential campaign it is being arranged to flood the country with postal cards bearing his countenance. Orders have been placed with manufacturers here for a million cards. Mr. Bryan at his desk; Bryan in cowhide boots, and hickory shirt; Bryan smiling with Jim Dahlman, Mayor of Omaha, on the rear end of a train; Bryan in the pulpit, delivering his lecture, and Bryan silk hatted in an automobile, are some of the poses in which the Nebraskan's presentment will plead for votes.

Pillsbury--Washburn Co. Fail.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 8.—The Pillsbury-Washburn Flour Mills Company, limited, the largest milling concern in the world, went into the hands of a receiver today, the application for a receivership being made by the company. Bad collections are given as the principal cause of the embarrassment of the company. The failure caused a sensation, as it was generally believed that the company was in a sound financial condition.

The Pillsbury-Washburn Flour Mills Company, limited, is a British corporation, and is capitalized at one million pounds, divided equally between common and 8 per cent cumulative preferred stock. The company has 832,000 pounds first mortgage six per cent debenture bonds which fall due in 1939.

The mills of the company, five in number, and situated in Minneapolis, have an aggregate capacity of 30,000 bushels a day.

In addition the company owns water power and dams on both sides of the Mississippi river to Minneapolis. It is reported that the Pillsbury-Washburn Company will be reorganized into an American concern.

C. S. Pillsbury, A. C. Loring, and A. S. Cobb, of Minneapolis, were named as receivers and placed under a bond of $500,000 by Judge Purdy, of the U. S. District Court. A meeting of the creditors will be held Monday. The mills of the company have not been shut down and the receivers declare will not be shut down.

The unsecured liabilities were placed at $5,000,000 and the secured liabilities at $4,000,000. The assets are $15,000,000.

Attorney Jacob Newman, of Chicago, who represented creditors to the amount of $1,450,000, was present. He represents banks all over the country, including institutions in Chicago, Milwaukee, Omaha, St. Louis, Des Moines and Keokuk.

It is asserted that a number of banks in Minnesota and in the western states hold notes for sums ranging from $200 to $100,000 and that the company could not get the ready cash to buy wheat at present high prices to meet export contracts.

MR. CATON A CANDIDATE.

Mr. James R. Caton, who has just returned from the 20th annual session of the Virginia State Bar Association, was today asked by a reporter of the Gazette whether the announcement of the candidacy of the present lieutenant governor, J. Taylor Ellyson, for re-election to that office, would change his purpose to be a candidate for the same office, to which he repied. The office of lieutenant-governor is one of honor and not of emolument, and the universal custom has been for the lieutenant-governor to retire with the governor, and at this time I do not recall a single instance in which the lieutentant-governor has been re-elected. Four years ago I was a candidate for this office, and had progressed to a considerable extent in my canvass, when Mr. Ellyson, after having previously declined to become a candidate, announced his candidacy. When his announcment was made public, I felt that owing to his long party service as chairman of the state democratic committee he had claims upon the party for recognition, and knew there was a strong sentiment in the State in favor of rewarding him for such services, and influenced by these considerations withdrew in his favor, which action on my part was announced by me in the public press of the State. Mr. Ellyson having received and enjoyed the honor of the office for the last four years, I do not now feel there is any obligation upon me to again retire in his favor, and the announcement of his candidacy will not change my purpose to be a candidate in the next gubernatorial contest for the office of lieutenant-governor, and I desire my friends not only at home, but throughout the State, to know that I am and will remain a candidate for that high office until the question is settled by the democratic primary for the nomination of a State ticket in 1909.

HATRED TURNED TO LOVE.

Patiently listening to the story of the courtship of her daughter and seeing no real reason why she should not have the man of her choice, Mrs. Rebecca Sherwood yesterday informed young Charlie Davis that as far as the case against him was concerned she was through with the prosecution. It will be remembered that young Davis was up before the police court a few days ago for perjury. He was represented by Mr. R. D. Brumback. He was fined $10 and given 30 days in jail by Justice Caton, from which decision an appeal was taken. Now as the mother, who caused the arrest, is perfectly willing to let the matter drop, and as the young couple is living happily in a flat on King street, and as the boy is an industrious, honest fellow, it is generally supposed that the matter will be settled without further trouble.

THE MILITARY EXERCISES.

Two immaginary battleships and an accompanying flotilla of thirteen immaginary torpedo-boats, which attempted last night to steal up the river with the purpose of "destroying" the capital, did not succeed in getting past Forts Washington and Hunt, where the District militia, in the last battle of this year's encampment, put the "deadly" navy of the enemy out of commission. A theoretical storm, which came up at an opportune moment, so "disorganized" the fleet that the well-trained guns from the forts had little difficulty in finishing the job of "demolishing" the few which succeeded in escaping the fury of the elements. The soldiers will return home tomorrow.

THE BALLOON.

Capt. Thomas Baldwin sailed from Fort Myer to Clarendon in his dirigible yesterday evening, and upon his return to the parade grounds was given an ovation. After being 550 feet in the air for seventeen minutes, Capt. Baldwin announced the machine had proved itself just what he expected, and that the official tests would begin this evening.

A VALUABLE HORSE SHOW.

Horseflesh has always been a fad with the owner of the John Robinson big circus. From a magnificent herd of Arabian steeds, racing thoughtbreds from Kentucky's blue grass region, deepchested English jumping horses, and the horse markets of the world furnishing the hundreds of broad backed draft horses, all thoroughbred Norman and Percheon stock, down to the diminutive Shetland and Welsh ponies, it is a horseman's paradise, show of equine supremacy. The zoological annex is the most complete ever carried by a tented show, comprising costly and rare animals from every section of the globe. This splendid array of animal talent will be seen in the big daily street parade, comprising a gorgeous procession of gold encased wagons, chariots and the finest American horses. This is the only big circus that is not in the circus trust. The show will exhibit in this city on August 10 and the lovers of all that is to be admired in horseflesh will enjoy the treat.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice Julius Pelton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

James Griffin, arrested by Officer Henderson, charged with offering goods to the amount of $1.97 illegally obtained from Lovell M. Davis, was dismissed upon paying the amount claimed by Davis as due him.

Charles Easter, colored, arrested by Officer Garvey for disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

James Jackson, arrested for vagrancy, was ordered out of town.

Walter O'Neil, permiting a vicious dog to run at large, which it supposed had bitten the Meeks child, was dismissed.

John Jones, colored, arrested by Lieut. Bettis, suspected of stealing rubber hose in the county was turned over to the county authorities.

Samuel Hines, Richard McGuire, Eugene Parker, Clarence Anderson and Charles McCoy, all colored, charged with robbery in Alexandria county, held for examination next Tuesday morning.

POOR LIGHTS.

It is generally conceded that this city has the poorest electric lights now than it has ever had. It many instances the lights are red and are of very little benefit to the traveling public. The drivers of bread wagons who are compelled to be out early in the morning say that the lights at Queen and Henry, Duke and Henry and on places on Oronoco street are never lighted after midnight which is a source of great inconvenience to the early risers.

RAMBLERS' CLUB.

As is the custom of the Ramblers' Club, tonight at midnight this social organization will set sail on the handsome two-masted schooner Grapeshot for the lower river and Chesapeake Bay. All the preparations necessary for a pleasant voyage have been completed and the boys expect a very pleasant time. The trip will occupy fifteen days. Mr. Robert F. Grimes will have charge of the culinary department with Mr. J. Craven Peyton as assistant. The vessel will be in charge of its owner—Capt. John Stanford.

WINTER UNIFORMS.

Brigadier-General C. C. Vaughan, of the Virginia Brigade, has ordered all the companies of the three regiments to make requisition at once for the new olive drab uniforms which will be issued for the winter service of the various commands. This uniform is exactly the same as that used in the regular service. In the past the Virginia volunteers have worn the old blue dress and full dress uniforms but will during the coming winter don the olive drab. As soon as the measurements can be made, they will be issued to the various companies.

ORIENTAL UNIVERSITY.

Prof. H. B. Bertel, M. D., of Newark, N. J., a representative of the Oriental University of this city, has been here for several days to make arrangements for a number of students to take up studies in connection with this university. He also informed President Holler that a gentleman of this city has expressed his probable willingness to put in about five to ten thousand dollars in the university to help the great cause in which he is deeply interested.

DIVORCE.

Suit for divorce was filed in Washington yesterday by Della Hanna Bridges against her husband, Benjamin M. Bridges, to whom she says she was married at Alexandria on December 8, 1905, by Rev. J. P. Stamp. She alleges "systematic and tyrannical ill-treatment," abuse, and names a co-respondent. She asks to be allowed to resume her maiden name and that of her former husband, Hanna.

SAD DEATH.

Mr. Hubert Hoy, son of Mr. Peter Hoy, died this afternoon at his parents' residence, 1202 Prince street. The deceased had been at Colonial Beach for the past three weeks trying to regain his health, and returned home last night. Mr. Hoy was a glassblower by occupation and had many friends, who will regret to learn of his death. He was a member of Trinity M. E. Church and the glassblowers' union.

SENT TO JAIL.

Bessie Briscoe, colored, was arrested yesterday for an assault upon Deputy Marshal Wibirt on the government reservation at Arlington. She was taken before Commissioner Wormley who held her in the sum of $500 bail for her appearance before the next grand jury. Being unable to furnish bail she was brought to this city by Deputy Marshal Glover and placed in jail here.

GOOD WHEAT YEAR.

According to reports from the surrounding country this is the best wheat year known in this section of the country for a long time. The millers in this section say that they have not received one lot of bad wheat as yet and if they do not prosper this year they may as well retire from business.

NEGRO HIGHWAYMEN.

Yesterday afternoon information was received at the station house that several dangerous negroes were in the woods near Franconia station on the R. F. & P. Railroad. Chief Goods suspecting that these were the highwaymen who had been operating in Alexandria county and vicinity, accompanied by Officer Sampson, boarded the 5:07 train and just before reaching Franconia discovered several negroes in the woods. The conductor stopped the train and the officers alighted and Officer Sampson went up the road and Chief Goods went in the opposite direction. The officers were disguised, wearing overalls, and blouse shirts, resembling track hands. When Officer Sampson approached the men he drew his pistol and placed them under arrest. By this time the chief had reached the scene and assisted in hand-cuffing the criminals. All the men were armed with guns and knives. The goods taken from the prisoners, which consisted of a pistol and a bag of pennies, were identified by Mr. James Pettit as being his property. The men are being held till next Tuesday for further examination. The men deny any connection with the robberies reported but give a rambling account of themselves. The return trip from Franconia was made on foot by the policemen, until they reached Rober's crossing, about a mile west of this city. At that point they got aboard the annex train, and came to this city with their prisoners.

POTOMAC BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

The 53rd session of the Potomac Baptist Association, which embraces the counties of Alexandria, Prince William, Fairfax, Loudoun, Fauquier and Stafford will be held this year, commencing August 12th and continuing three days, with the Mount Hope Baptist Church, Loudoun county, near Ashburn. The association sermon will be delivered by Rev. S. W. Cole of Remmington. Rev. C. T. Herndon, D.D., was to have delivered the associational sermon, but during the year has removed to another association. The present officers of the association are: Moderator Judge C. E. Nicol; clerk, J. A. Otley; assistant clerk, Jas. R. Mansfield and treasurer John W. Kincheloe. The delegates from the First Baptist Church of this city who will attend are Messrs. W. P. Kerrick; J. T. Preston, N. L. Williamson and J. W. Largley.

DECIDED DOG CASE.

Justice Caton this morning took a broad view of the dog question when two young men were before him for permitting unlicensed dogs to run at large. The complainant in the case was Mr. Arthur Meeks, who claimed his little child had been bitten by one of the dogs. There was no evidence to convince the presiding justice that either man's dog had bitten the child, and in summing up the evidence he said there was at present no law compelling the muzzling of dogs and that he was opposed to the prevailing custom of killing dogs when there was no proof of rabies in the offending canine. He said, however, that he would request the parties accused to keep their dogs close for several days and watch developments.

CRUISES OF POTOMAC CRAFTS.

Carey Mills, of this city, with his two sons, has completed a cruise on the Potomac aboard his sailing yacht Mills. The little craft left this city about fifteen days ago, and on the way to the mouth of the river and back stops were made at Colonial Beach and other points for stays of varying length.

Edward Reeves and his son Arthur, who have been cruising on the river for a month past aboard the sailing yacht Ella, have completed the trip and returned to this city. Many points on the river were visited, and the cruise was a most enjoyable one, and may be repeated after the hunting season opens on the river.

SAD ANNIVERSARY.

Today thirty-five years ago a great many people boarded a river steamer on her trip to the lower landings little dreaming that before the sun had made its circuit of the heavens the Potomac would contain the lifeless bodies of at least seventy-five people; that fathers and mothers would be separated from their loved ones and husbands from wives. Such was the fact, though, when the steamer Wawasset burned to the water's edge off Chatterton landing. The only Alexandrians lost was the entire family of Mr. Charles M. Griffin.

LEFT TOWN.

The young man who was held yesterday for refusing to pay his board bill was discharged from custody in the afternoon as the boarding house keeper withdrew the complaint as a matter of economy. The man's wife was still at the boarding house and he was locked up with no hope of getting the money. The mistress of the boarding house would not put the woman out and it was a case of letting the man go or still further providing for his better half.

KNOCKED DOWN.

Night before last a white man was on his way home and on reaching the old Presbyterian Church, on south Fairfax street, was assaulted by a negro. A citizen on hearing the cries for help ran to the assistance of the white man, but the negro had made good his escape, and the man assaulted, thinking it was a pal of the highwaymen, ran also. The name of the person assaulted could not be ascertained.

PERSONAL.

Mr. James R. Caton and wife, Justice Harry B. Caton and wife and Mr. J. Randall Caton, jr, have returned from Hot Springs, where they attended the Virginia Bar Association. At the meeting Mr. James R. Caton was elected one of three representatives to the American Bar Association which meets in Seattle, Wash., Aug 25. He will leave in a few days. While this association is national in its character it is international in its influence, representatives from foreign countries attending its deliberations.

Mr. Gardner L. Boothe has returned from Hot Springs, where he attended the meeting of the State Bar Association. He says the newspaper reports about "a Taft wave spreading over the association" is the veriest nonsence and that he does not believe that outside the republican members Mr. Taft will get five other votes in the association.

If it fits

An investment you wish to make, rest assured the safest investment you can possibly make is to deposit your money in the Savings Department of this corporation where it will earn 3 per cent. interest compounded twice a year. Your principal will then be always at your command and cannot depreciate in value. You can start an account with this corporation for $1.00 or upwards. If you have other investments in view isn't it advisable to have your MONEY MAKING MONEY while you are deciding this matter. There's many a $1 or $5 bill spent unnecessarily because it is carried in the pocket, when a savings account would have discouraged or prevented the expenditure. A bank account is not only a convenience, but a great encourager of economy, so why not commence right and open an account with us today. SATRUDAY EVENING, AUG. 8, 1908

She Lost Her Shoe.

While in Samoa Robert Louis Stevenson and his wife in a great measure did as the Romans did—that is to say, as the Samoans did. It was Louis' custom to lie abed late of a morning and spend the remainder of the time under a tree on the hill clad in light pajamas, the dress of the native Kanaka. With his wife it was the same. Stays were unknown to her and a curling iron a dim recollection of a shady past. It was while Stevenson and his wife were living at Apia, in Samoa, that Mr. Heywood was appointed consul there for this country. Shortly after his arrival in the country he arranged for a reception to the English, German and American residents of the country that they might meet him in his official capacity and he them as "citizens of Samoa." Of course an invitation was sent Robert Louis Stevenson and his wife. Two days before the date of the function Mr. Heywood was surprised to receive a note from Mr. Stevenson sent by courier. The note read as follows.

Mrs. Robert Louis Stevenson and Robert Louis Stevenson accept Consul Heywood's invitation with pleasure and assure him that they will be present on the evening of the 23d if by that time Mrs. Stevenson finds her other shoe. Ever thine, ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON.

Ancient Fashion Jargon.

The language of the fashion plate and the woman's paper is sufficiently appalling to the mere man even in these days of emancipated and, we may presume, more grammatical womanhood; but, according to an extract from a fashion journal of 1787, the jargon of those days was even more astounding. This is how the paper described the dress of a certain Mlle. D. at the opera:

"She appeared in a dress of 'stifled sighs,' ornamented with 'superfluous regrets,' the bodice cut in a 'perfect candor' point and trimmed with 'indiscreet complaints.' Her hair was dressed in 'sustained sentiments,' with a headdress of 'sustained conquest,' ornamented with several 'flyaways' and 'downcast eye' ribbons, and her collar was 'beggar on horseback' color."

No doubt all these marvelous terms conveyed some meaning to the fashionable woman of the days when French society danced on the edge of the volcano of 1789, but to their descendants of today they have absolutely no meaning.

Tackle This One.

The following paragraph of a hundred words is an excellent test in pronunciation. Try it first, and then go over it again, every word, in company with a good dictionary:

"Cleopatra, isolated in the oasis, soon became acclimated and had ample leisure to contemplate all the economic details of her inextricable sword. The wound resisted the allopathic misogynist, who gave a courteous diagnosis and humbly craved precedence for a tiny idyl in the form of a vase with an aesthetic acousting apparatus. This told the news like a book, but it might have been a dog living in squalor from the look she launched at him when he wrote down his address. She ate her breakfast and then fraternized with a national expert in appendicitis, who attended the obsequies."

A Plot That Failed.

A story of a plot to kidnap Queen Victoria and turn England into a republic is told in Peter Latouche's book, "Anarchy; Its Methods and Exponents." This coup d'etat was planned to take place in 1888, the year of the great dock strike in London, but was frustrated by the success of the strikers and the unexpected sympathy and help shown them by the moneyed classes. This did much to conciliate the masses, on whose help the revolutionists relied.

Capital Punishment.

Bride (throwing her arms about the bridegroom's neck)—You are my prisoner for life! Bridegroom—It's not imprisonment for life, love; it's capital punishment.—Sydney Town and Country Journal.

The Villain.

Critic—The villain in your story is a perfect masterpiece. Where did you get the character? Novelist—I imagined a man possessed of all the forms of wickedness which my wife attributes to me when she is angry.

His Limit.

Operator—What do you think of the new foreman, Jimmie? Printer's Devil—Say, dat feller could print all he knows in display type on a postage stamp without canceling the stamp.—Exchange.

Uncomplimentary.

Howell—I'm a man of parts. Powell—Most of them seem to be missing—Exchange.

Next to acquiring good friends the best acquisition is that of good books—Colton.

If you take Kodol in the beginning the bad attacks of Dyspepsia will be avoided, but if you allow these little attacks to go unheeded it will take Kodol a longer time to put your stomach in good condition again. Get a bottle of Kodol today. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

What is Best for Indigestion?

Mr. A. Robinson, of Drumquin, Ontario, has been troubled for years with indigestion, and recommends Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets as "the best medicine ever used." If troubled with indigestion or constipation give them a trial. They are certain to prove beneficial. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at W. F.
